NUISANCES

Sections:

- 8.24.010 Prohibited.
- 8.24.020 Nuisances declared.
- 8.24.030 Nuisances subject to abatement without exception.
- 8.24.040 Abatement of nuisances.
- 8.24.050 Cost of abatement-- Recovery--Property assessment.
- 8.24.060 Enforcement.
- 8.24.070 Right of entry upon real estate.
- 8.24.100 Violation – Penalty

8.24.010 Prohibited.

It is unlawful for any person to create, cause, or maintain any nuisance, or to permit any nuisance to exist upon or in connection with any premises owned by him or under his control.

(Ord. 1-1984 Art. 4 § 4.1.1, 1984)

8.24.020 Nuisances declared.

The following are declared to be a nuisance:

- A. Any thing or activity which unreasonably annoys or interferes with the use or enjoyment of public or private property or which constitutes a health or safety hazard;
- B. Anything declared to be a nuisance by any town ordinance or by the statutes or regulations of the state;
- C. Any other thing or activity which under law constitutes a nuisance;
- D. Any excavation exceeding five feet in depth, and cisterns, wells, or any excavation used for storage of water which are not adequately covered with a locked lid or other covering weighing at least sixty (60) pounds, or are not securely fenced with a solid fence to the height of at least five feet;
- E. Any unoccupied building, house or other structure which is in such a state of disrepair that it may collapse at any time or poses a safety hazard to persons upon the premises;
- F. Manure stored for any purpose other than immediate use as fertilizer;
- G. Any unused refrigerator, washer, dryer, freezer, or other appliance accessible to children which does not have the door removed.

(Ord. 1-1984 Art. 4 § 4.1.2, 1984)

8.24.030 Nuisances subject to abatement without exception.

Any use or the manner of use of any property which is declared a nuisance by this section shall be a nuisance subject to abatement under this chapter notwithstanding the fact that such a use might otherwise be allowed under any zoning, land use, building or other applicable regulations of the town.

(Ord. 1-1984 Art. 4 § 4.1.3, 1984)

8.24.040 Abatement of nuisances.

- A. In addition to any other powers granted to the town by law to abate nuisances, any nuisance may be abated in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.
- B. The town may maintain an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin or abate a nuisance.
- C. The town may prosecute, in municipal court, any person maintaining or allowing a nuisance to exist, and upon conviction, the court may enter an order on such items as it deems appropriate for the abatement of the nuisance in addition to any fine or jail sentence imposed.
- D. The town may give notice in writing to any person responsible for the maintenance of a nuisance, which notice shall allow a reasonable time for such person to correct and eliminate the nuisance. If such person shall fail to correct or eliminate the nuisance by the time specified in the notice, the town may take action for the correction or elimination of the nuisance and shall have the right to enter upon private property for such purpose. The town may collect the cost of doing so in accordance with Section 8.24.050. Prior to entering upon private property the town shall request the permission of the owner or party in possession of the premises. If such permission is denied or such persons are not located, the town shall not enter onto private property until the municipal court, or other court of competent jurisdiction, issues an order authorizing entry, which may be issued upon a showing of probable cause and compliance with the notice requirements of this subsection.
- E. The town may take all necessary steps, including the entry upon private property, to abate or eliminate a nuisance without notice when such nuisance constitutes an immediate health or safety hazard. In such event, the cost incurred by the town may be collected in accordance with Section 8.24.050. Prior to entry the town shall obtain an order from the municipal court, or other court of competent jurisdiction, authorizing entry, which order the court may issue on a showing of probable cause.

(Ord. 1-1984 Art. 4 § 2, 1984)

8.24.050 Cost of abatement-- Recovery--Property assessment.

- A. The town may recover all costs it incurs, including reasonable attorney fees, plus interest and penalties allowed by law in abating any nuisance as provided in this chapter.
- B. The town may maintain an action in a court of competent jurisdiction for costs incurred in abating a nuisance.
- C. The cost incurred shall be an assessment and lien upon the property affected which may be foreclosed by the town in accordance with law which shall have priority over all other liens except general taxes and prior special assessments.

- D. The costs incurred by the town may be certified to the county treasurer to be collected as delinquent charges together with interest and penalties authorized by law in a manner similar to property taxes against the property upon which the nuisance was maintained.

(Ord. 1-1984 Art. 4 § 3, 1984)

8.24.060 Enforcement.

The provisions of this chapter shall be enforced by any officer of the town, including the town building inspector and any police officer.

(Ord. 6-1995 § 1, 1995; Ord. 1-1984 Art. 4 § 4.4.1, 1984)

8.24.070 Right of entry upon real estate.

Where any officer of the town has reasonable cause to believe that there exists a condition upon any real estate to within the town which constitutes a nuisance, such officer, upon presentation of proper credentials, may enter upon the premises at reasonable times to inspect the property for compliance with this chapter. Such right of entry shall include the right to take photographs and video recordings of the premises to record the condition of the premises. In the event that the owner or occupant of the property obstructs, prevents, or interferes in any manner with such inspection, the town shall be entitled to apply to the municipal court for an order authorizing such inspection, which order shall be issued upon the showing of reasonable cause to believe that a nuisance condition may exist upon the premises, either with or without prior notice to the owner. Either a written complaint, from any inhabitant of the town, alleging conditions upon such property which would constitute a nuisance under this chapter, or when an officer of the town can show cause that there exists a condition that is contrary to or in violation of the Municipal Codes, shall constitute reasonable cause for such right of entry and inspection.

(Ord. 2010-21, 6-17-2010) (Ord. 6-1995 § 1, 1995; Ord. 1-1984 Art. 4 § 4.4.2, 1984)

MARIJUANA CULTIVATION FOR PERSONAL USE

Sections:

8.40.010 Marijuana Cultivation for Personal Use

8.40.010 Marijuana Cultivation for Personal Use

- A. Purpose. It is the purpose of this chapter to require that marijuana cultivation for personal use within the town shall be conducted in a safe manner that does not endanger the public health, safety, and welfare, or create a public nuisance.
- B. Findings (Background and Authority)
 1. Copies of Amendment 20 Ballot Title - (Approved by Colorado voters 11/7/2000) and Amendment 64 Ballot Title - (Approved by Colorado voters 11/6/2012) are hereby attached as exhibits to this Ordinance. The documents are exhibits to ease access by the public and shall not be codified.

2. The growing or processing of marijuana plants in a residential setting can affect the health, safety, and welfare of both the occupants of the residential structure within which the marijuana is grown, persons occupying nearby structures and the public at large.
3. Nothing in the Colorado constitution, or any other applicable law or regulation, immunizes persons who grow or process marijuana for personal use from local regulation.
4. The town is a home rule municipal corporation organized and existing under its charter and article XX, section 6 of the Colorado constitution. As such, the town possesses all powers granted to home rule municipalities by Colorado law.
5. This chapter to regulate marijuana cultivation for personal use is necessary and proper to provide for the safety, preserve the health, promote the prosperity, and improve the order, comfort, and convenience of the town and the inhabitants thereof, and to reduce the number of public nuisances that exist within the town.

8.50.010 Definitions

Disaster Emergency: An occurrence or imminent threat of widespread or severe damage, injury, or loss of life or property resulting from any natural cause or cause of human origin, including but not limited to fire, flood, earthquake, wind, storm, wave action, hazardous substance incident, oil spill, or water contamination requiring action to avert danger or damage, volcanic activity, epidemic, air pollution, blight, drought, infestation, explosion, civil disturbance, hostile military or paramilitary action, or a condition of riot, insurrection, or invasion existing in the Town.

Emergency: A serious situation or occurrence that happens unexpectedly and demands immediate action, or creates urgent need for action or assistance.

8.50.020 Procedures

- A. Declaration of Disaster Emergency. The Board of Trustees shall have the power to declare through a resolution that a disaster emergency exists and resources for the emergency are at or beyond Town capacity, or the threat of such event is imminent. If a quorum of the Board of Trustees cannot be formed, the Mayor shall have the authority to declare a disaster or emergency on a temporary basis until a quorum of The Board of Trustees can be seated.
- B. Declaration in Writing. The resolution declaring a State of Disaster Emergency by the Board of Trustees or Mayor shall be in writing and shall describe the nature of the emergency; the area threatened, the conditions which have brought it about, and the conditions that would remedy it in the opinion of Board of Trustees based on the available information. The Town Administrator shall be responsible for publication and dissemination of information to the public and shall file the declaration with the Town Clerk and forward a copy to the Colorado Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Management.
- C. Effect of Declaration. The issuance of a declaration of a disaster emergency shall automatically empower the Town Administrator to exercise any and all of the emergency powers permitted by state and local law and as set forth in the resolution. The Board of Trustees shall convene to perform its legislative powers as the situation demands and shall receive reports through the Town Administrator and evaluate and enact policies and other incident support as required. In case of a disaster emergency requiring immediate action of the Board of Trustees to protect public health, safety, or welfare, the Board of Trustees may convene an emergency meeting without any advance public notice or with such limited advance public notice as the Mayor or other presiding officer finds feasible in circumstances, with full compliance with the Charter requirements relating to notice to be achieved as soon as possible thereafter. Nothing in this Chapter shall abridge or curtail the powers of the Board of Trustees to properly and adequately respond to the emergency. A declaration of disaster emergency may grant the Town Administrator the authority to access emergency reserves, including reserves maintained pursuant to Section 5 of Article XX of the Colorado Constitution, and to request assistance from the Colorado Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Management.

- D. Duration A state of disaster emergency shall remain in effect until the The Board of Trustees or Town Administrator declares that the threat of danger has passed or that the disaster emergency conditions no longer exist. Notwithstanding the forgoing, a state of disaster emergency shall not be continued or renewed for a period in excess of seven days unless the Board of Trustees expressly approves a longer duration. The Board of Trustees may by motion terminate the state of disaster emergency at any time. Upon continuation or termination of a state of disaster emergency, the Town Administrator shall immediately issue and publish a notice affecting the same. Any declaration continuing or terminating a state of disaster emergency shall be filed with the Town Clerk and a copy shall be forwarded to the Colorado Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Management.

8.50.030 Disaster Emergency Response Powers

- A. Upon the issuance of the declaration of disaster emergency and for as long as said declaration is in effect, the Town Administrator of this code shall have and may exercise any and all emergency powers granted by applicable state or local law subsequent to issuance of the disaster emergency declaration.
- B. During the course of a declared disaster emergency a town employee or authorized agent may enter onto or upon private property if the employee or authorized agent has reasonable grounds to believe that an emergency situation exists and that an entry on private property is required in order to protect life or minimize an imminent threat to property.
- C. During the course of a declared disaster emergency, the Town Administrator may, on behalf of the town, enter into reciprocal aid, mutual aid, joint powers agreements, intergovernmental assistance agreements or other contracts or plans with other governmental entities necessary for the protection of life and property. Such agreements may include the furnishing or exchange of supplies, equipment, facilities, personnel and/or services.
- D. During the course of a declaration disaster emergency, the Town Administrator may promulgate such regulations as the manager deems necessary, to protect life and property and preserve critical resources. These regulations shall be confirmed at the earliest practical time by the Board of Trustees, shall be circulated to the public, and shall be disseminated to the news media. These regulations may include, but shall not be limited to powers granted by applicable state or local law. Specifically, during the course of any declared emergency, the Town Administrator may:
 - 1. Suspend the provisions of this code that prescribe conduct of town business, if strict compliance would in any way prevent, hinder, or delay necessary action in coping with the emergency.

2. Transfer, reassign or otherwise change the direction, personnel, or functions of town departments for the purpose of performing or facilitating emergency services.
 3. Direct and compel evacuation of persons from any stricken or threatened area within the town if the Town Administrator deems the action necessary for the immediate preservation of life or property or other emergency mitigation, response, or recovery measures.
 4. Prescribe routes, modes of transportation, and destinations in connection with an evacuation.
 5. Control ingress to and egress from a disaster area, the movement of persons within the area, and the occupancy of premises therein.
 6. Suspend or limit the sale, dispensing, or transportation of alcoholic beverages, firearms, explosives, or combustibles with the town.
 7. Make provision for the availability and use of temporary emergency housing.
 8. Waive all provisions for competitive bidding and direct the purchase agent to purchase necessary supplies in the open market at not more than commercial prices.
 9. Prohibit or restrict the movement of vehicles in order to facilitate the work of disaster response forces or to facilitate the mass movement of persons to or from critical areas within or without the town.
 10. Declare a public curfew.
 11. Close or regulate the business hours of any commercial establishment in the town when such closing or regulation is in the public interest.
 12. Cause to be carried out such other reasonable measures or regulations as are necessary to preserve public peace, health, and safety.
- E. During the course of a declared disaster emergency, the Town Administrator is authorized to exercise all powers permitted by the Home Rule Charter and state law to require emergency services of any town officer or employee and command the aid of as many citizens of the town as the manager deems necessary in the execution of the manager's duties. Such persons shall be entitled to all privileges, benefits, and immunities as are provided by state law for civil defense workers.

8.50.040 Compensation

Compensation for services or private property used by the town in responding to an emergency shall be compensated as specified by contract or as required by state law, subject to the principals and procedures set forth in C.R.S. 24-32-2111 and Articles 1 to 7 of Title 38 of the Colorado Revised Statutes.

8.50.050 Line of Succession

- A. If the Mayor is unable to perform the duties of the Mayor set forth in this Chapter, then the duties conferred upon the Mayor shall be performed in descending order, as follows: by the Mayor Pro-Tem, then by the Board of Trustees Member most senior in length of service, then by the Board of Trustees Member whose last name begins with a letter that is closest to the beginning of the alphabet.
- B. The Town Administrator shall, by the 1st of May of each calendar year, publish and submit to Board of Trustees an order of succession of town officials who shall execute the duties and powers described in this Chapter for execution by the Town Administrator in the event that the Town Administrator is unavailable to manage a disaster emergency.
- C. In any calendar year in which the Town Administrator fails to publish and submit such list to Board of Trustees, the line of succession of authority to manage a disaster emergency shall include those occupying the following positions (if applicable) in the following order:
 - 1. The Town Administrator
 - 2. The Town Clerk
 - 3. The Public Works Director
 - 4. The Finance Director; or
 - 5. The Chief of Police
 - 6. In the event none of the above noted people are available to serve, the next highest ranking person within each of the various departments, in the line of succession as indicated above, shall serve.
- D. However, the succession of authority provided in this section shall always be subject to the power of the Board of Trustees to determine, by appropriate motion, that a specific elected official or staff member shall take responsibility for the management of a disaster emergency.

8.50.060. Conflicting Ordinance, Orders, Rules and Regulations Suspended

Any ordinances, orders, rules or regulations promulgated during a declared disaster emergency shall take precedence over existing ordinances, orders, rules and regulations if a conflict arises during the state of disaster emergency.

8.50.070 Violation of Regulations

It shall be unlawful for any person to violate any of the provisions of this Chapter or of the ordinances, orders, rules or regulations issued pursuant to the authority contained in this Chapter, or to willfully obstruct, hinder, or delay any person in the exercise of any duty or authority pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. Police, code enforcement and such other law enforcement and peace officers as may be authorized by the Town Administrator shall be authorized to enforce the ordinances, orders, rules and regulations made or issued pursuant to this Chapter.

8.50.080 Penalty

Any person convicted of violating any section of this Chapter or any ordinance, order, rule or regulation issued pursuant to the authority contained herein shall be subject to Municipal Code General Penalty 1.16

8.50.090 Applicability of State Law

The Colorado Disaster Emergency Act, C.R.S. § 24-33.5-701 et seq., as amended, shall govern the implementation of the duties, powers, immunities and other provisions set forth in this Chapter to the extent applicable.

The State of Colorado Emergency Relief statute (C.R.S. 24.33.5- 1102) allows the Governor to provide the distribution of medicine, food, and supplies.

The State of Colorado Grants to Individuals statute (C.R.S. 24- 33.5-1106) authorizes the Governor to accept a grant from the federal government to provide financial assistance to an individual or family in a single major disaster declared by the President.
